A Race on Skates. Dutchwomen were noted for skating long ago. Mr. F. S. Bird, for instance, described in the eighties how the Dutch countrywomen skated with their egg and butter basket for miles along the frozen ditches and watercourses with ease and regularity of speed. In this country scene the sleigh figures as an ideal bath-chair; doubtless the downward slope suggested the race.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Dear Lizzie - We are all going Wed. night. If you can come meet me in Elmwood at 8.15. It is in the same place and I guess about the same crowd are the last one - Be sure to come if you can -
